

Subject line: FREE Merch Giveaway + See Our New Look 🎉

After nearly a decade of building barns, roofs, and friendships across Mid-Michigan, we figured it was time to take our own advice: step back, look around, and see what could use a little updating.

Turns out, it was our brand. 🛠️

So we did some renovating. New logo, more colors, fresh tagline.
Something that still feels like us, but moves us forward.

We wrote up a blog on the reasoning behind the changes if you're interested - and trust us, the changes are nowhere near as drastic as what Cracker Barrel did. 😊

And if you're interested in getting some FREE merch, hop on over to our social announcement to enter. All you need to do is leave one comment to enter. Not too bad, right?

Thanks for being a part of this journey with us. We can't do any of this without you. 🙌
